sao platform

Something Abstract Online Platform

Something Abstract Online Platform

The SAO Platform – a unique elearning platform for developing and delivering online, internet-based training, communications and webinars with real impact.

Deliver training and communications when and where convenient to your target audience to maximise use.

Interact with your audience in numerous different ways to ensure maximum engagement, knowledge transfer and engagement.

Deliver communications and training directly to your audience ensuring that they receive exactly what was sent without any change of message.
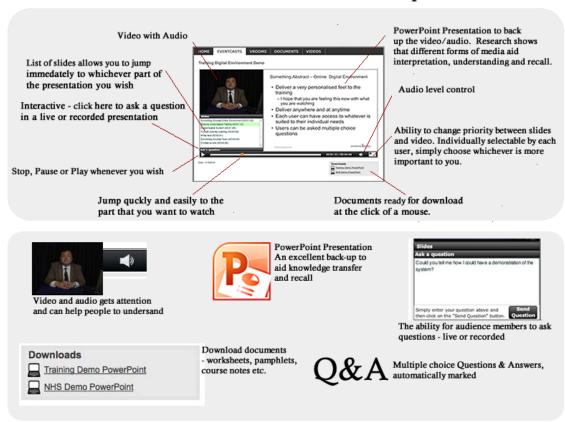

Highly efficient, create material once and use it many times.

Build and deliver multiple elements in one simple-to-use browser window

Click here to view a demonstration webinar of the SAO Platform in action, iif you are viewing this document on a computer.

One Internet Browser Screen with a Unique Mix

Video with Audio

List of slides allows you to jump immedately to whichever part of the presentation you wish

Interactive - click here to ask a question in a live or recorded presentation

Stop, Pause or Play whenever you wish

Jump quckly and easily to the part that you want to watch

PowerPoint Presentation to back up the video/audio. Research shows that different forms of media aid interpretation, understanding and recall.

Audio level control

Ability to change priority between slides and video. Individually selectable by each user, simply choose whichever is more important to you.

Documents ready for download at the click of a mouse.

Video and audio gets attention and can help people to undersand

PowerPoint Presentation An excellent back-up to aid knowledge transfer and recall

The ability for audience members to ask questions - live or recorded

Downloads
- Training Demo PowerPoint
- NHS Demo PowerPoint

Download documents - worksheets, pamphlets, course notes etc.

Q&A Multiple choice Questions & Answers, automatically marked

All this in one browser screen, in one Powerful Plaform

sao platform

something abstract
media in motion